

Arno Fuchs (CEO)

Arno is the founding partner and CEO of FCF. He is responsible for the strategic direction and positioning of the company, also working directly with the financial community and FCF's clients towards successful transactions.

Prior to FCF, Arno was a Managing Director and a junior partner of the German investment banking boutique Viscardi AG, where he was head of the technology team. He also held various positions with SG Cowen and JP Morgan & Co.

Arno received his MBA in finance from Pace University, New York, his Bachelor in finance from Florida Atlantic University, Boca Raton and his "Vordiplom" in international business from Private Hochschule für Internationales Management, Bad Homburg.